

THE ECCHO

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Spring sure is a beautiful time in CCH! Also a busy one with grass that apparently won't stop growing and trees that are busy showering our patios and gardens with flowers and seeds.

At our annual meeting on May 7 we elected our 2015-16 board. A big thank you to those who served last year and to those who have volunteered to serve this year. We have a couple of vacancies on the board still, so if you are able to consider volunteering please contact me or any board member. Our board is an engaged and capable group and it is a pleasure to work with such fine neighbors.

We were pleased to have historian Andrea Lowenwarter join us at the annual meeting and give a brief history of the Wilcoxsons, the family who built Blenheim and owned the farm on which CCH was built. Andrea shared with us some interesting photos of "pre-CCH" and stories of the impact of the Civil War on the family. This area has seen many changes.

As many of you know we have an historic Oak tree on Brookwood that has seen it all since the Revolutionary War and somehow survived the construction of our ramblers! The Brookwood Oak is also a stately reminder that we can be participants and observers of a natural world that has many stories to tell as well. Although we may not be "nature whisperers", we can, by being careful observers and stewards, learn a lot and participate in a world of activity occurring all around us. According to noted entomologist Douglas Tallamy, one oak tree can support more than 500 different species of insects and animals. And he wasn't even counting us! But we count on trees for their air filtering, water absorption, and shade. Mature trees have an exponentially greater ability to provide these services than young ones. Even though urban trees are under a lot of stress compared to their woodland relatives, with proper care many of our trees in CCH will perform all of these services for a very long time, and will be a wonderful and inspiring legacy for each of us and our community. As part of our Common Area grant work this spring, we planted two canopy trees, a Scarlet Oak and a Pignut Hickory, and although only 5 or 6 feet tall now, we hope those two will someday be majestic residents of our Common Area. On June 28th, we'll be hosting a tree care information session from 5-7pm at the Common Area.

BLOCK CAPTAIN'S CORNER

Hello to all the Block Captains and residents of CCH. I'm your new VP of Block Captains. My name is Vera Daniels; my mom, Leslie, has been the VP for the last 4 years and now I'm taking over for her though we'll probably still make the deliveries together. I'm a senior at Fairfax High School and will graduate on June 16. You can reach me at 703-383-1272 or my email is verad.0001@gmail.com. I'm glad to be helping out Country Club Hills.

DO YOU KNOW YOUR BLOCK CAPTAIN?

Polly Feuer (3409 Brookwood) Route 1G (3401, 3403, 3405, 3407, 3409, 3411, 3413 Brookwood; 9928, 9930, 9932, 9934 Pinehurst)

Polly has been a Block Captain since at least 1996 (but probably before) and has held three different routes. Polly has lived in Country Club Hills since January 1989. She met Bob Feuer on a Sierra Club hike and six months later married him. He was an original owner; he bought their house in September 1954. They had a fabulous marriage, often camping, and traveling to many countries. They had five grandchildren together. She has been a member of the Garden Club since 1989.

Polly has been widowed since 2002. She feels Country Club Hills is a lovely community and Fairfax City a terrific place to live.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Welcome to CCH's new resident, Emma Lynn Nelson, who was born on Tuesday, 26 May, to proud parents Jen and JR Nelson of 9918 Pinehurst.

CCHCA ONLINEQUIDNUNC?

Fifty years ago our CCH newsletters were called "Quidnunc?" According to an encyclopedia it means "a person who is eager to know the latest news and gossip; a gossip or busybody." In Latin it simply means "what now?" Interested in reading some of our CCH Quidnuncs? Visit our website www.cchca.org, click on "newsletters 1906-1999" and finally click on any of the first five 1965 newsletters.

CCH Yahoo/Google groups

Our CCH Yahoo-Group was created by Jill Toth in 2002 and has been serving us well ever since. A couple of years ago Yahoo made it next to impossible to add new members; we have therefore established a CCH/Google-Group in 2013. All new residents and new emails have been added to our CCH Google group. Members are asked to use the email address to post their message on both groups: groups@cchca.org in order to get greater exposure. Thanks!

CCH Directory 2015-16

Check the CCH printed Directory 2015 or online version to verify that your information/data are correct.

Kindly use the questionnaire in this newsletter to help us update the next edition.

The online directory will be updated immediately. Thank you.

CCH website

Our website www.cchca.org was created under Jill Toth's presidency in 2005; it is still serving us well; a new look was added by Steve Lescure in 2013 and was acclaimed with great enthusiasm. Any comments on the website should be addressed to webmaster@cchca.org

Thanks!

IN MEMORIAM

Long-time CCH resident Polly Rosemary Haecker passed away on May 20th, just a month short of her 90th birthday. Polly was an accomplished artist and was active in the Country Hills Garden Club. Her family and friends celebrated her life at a gathering on May 30th.

Another member of the Country Hills Garden Club, Nadine Hickey, passed away on May 19th at age 94. Although Nadine did not live in CCH, she had many friends in the community. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Capital Caring Hospice, 24419 Millstream Drive, Aldie, VA 20105.

GARDEN CLUB NEWS

The Country Hills Garden Club (CHGC) adopted a spot at "The Commons" over a decade ago. We started by clearing our designated area and planted some bulbs and a few plants that first year. We have continued to plant, trim, pull weeds, spread mulch and edge as necessary. Our club will soon be modifying some of our area to conform to the Community Appearance Committees plans for "The Commons" to eventually be certified as a Regional Wildlife Sanctuary. We will begin by removing some plants that are not native and replacing them with additional native plants and flowers. Watch for the transformation to begin.

We had our installation of new officers on May 10th at Choices Restaurant. Please welcome Jennifer Judelsohn and Nancy LeBow as co-vice presidents for programming; Pat Bonnes, treasurer; and Joan Phillips, secretary. Polly Feuer our outgoing president has led us over the last two years and we greatly appreciate her guidance and dedication.

The club meets the second Tuesday of each month at 10:00 a.m. We rotate gathering in each other's homes. At times speakers are scheduled to share various aspects of gardening, or we may take a field trip to visit gardens in the area, perhaps even a winery. Our program chairs always have something exciting planned for us.

For planning purposes, our September meeting will be held on the 8th at the Skoglund home. If you are interested in finding out more about your neighborhood garden club, you may reach me at 703-591-4017 or at jeskoglund@verizon.net.

Our club will be 60 years old in 2016 and we hope that you will be part of our celebration.

Joyce Skoglund, President

CCH BEAUTY SPOT

Driving through Country Club Hills this week, we were struck by all the blooming rose bushes. They seem particularly lush and vibrant this year. One yard really mesmerized us: Congratulations to Heather and Jason Gray of 9919 Farr Drive—you are the winners of the June Beauty Spot of the Month!

The large blocks of knock-out roses flanking the driveway and along the front of the house are captivating, festooned with deep red flowers. After you let their beauty feed your soul, begin to look around. This yard is brimming with gardening inspirations!

There are raised beds (at the top and right side of the driveway) planted with a specimen red Japanese maple, azaleas that just finished blooming, and lariope that will bloom later this summer; a window box bursting with purple baby-bell petunias; and a hardscape sidewalk

(on the right border of the property, gently curving to the back yard) edged by a lovely row of hydrangeas flowering in soothing shades of light blues and pastel purples, boxwood, crepe myrtle, and hostas.

The gardens are rounded out with trees and shrubs (dogwood, Otto Luyken laurel, rhododendron, evergreen); juniper, vinca minor, and pachysandra as ground cover; and flowers (asters and daylilies) and ornamental grasses to add visual interest.

Stop by and see this beautiful yard!

Respectfully submitted,

Jennifer Judelsohn

MEMBERSHIP

Thanks to the work of Steve Lescure and Ernie Klimonda, CCH neighbors can now pay their annual member dues online. Just go to the CCHCA website (www.cchca.org) and click on the Membership Application tab. You will be instructed on how to renew your membership for one or two years using the PayPal payment option.

As of May 30, there are 170 households in our neighborhood that have paid their CCHCA Membership dues for 2015. Dues for one year are $15 and help pay for food and entertainment for events such as our Labor Day picnic, Halloween Party, End-of-School Ice Cream Social, as well as neighborhood upkeep and care of The Commons, the CCHCA website, Yahoo-Google Newsgroups, quarterly newsletters, yearly updated CCH Directory, Santa Claus's visits, Holiday Decoration Contest, Easter Egg-Roll and more . . . ! If you cannot remember whether or not you have paid your neighborhood dues this year, contact Stephanie Justen, membership v.p. at kjusten2@gmail.com or consult the membership list on the CCHCA website (found under the Membership 2015 tab).

If you would rather not use the online option to pay your dues, simply complete the membership application (located on the back of the newsletter) and deliver it, along with your check, to Stephanie Justen at 3420 Andover Drive.

SUMMER SOCIAL EVENTS

CCH Sunday Strolls got off to a great start May 10th with an impromptu gathering at the Common Area for light refreshments and conversation. Sunday Strolls, 5-7 pm every Sunday, is a time to relax and get out for a walk, bike ride or a chat with neighbors. Sunday Strolls can be a good time to share your talents and knowledge too! If you have a topic, a musical piece or even a new recipe to try on us, we'll be happy to schedule it for the Common Area on a Sunday evening of your choosing and get the word out.

Upcoming ice cream social! One of our favorite neighborhood events to celebrate the end of school, the start of summer! June 19th from 5-6 pm

If you want to host a social event this summer let us know! It's easy and we can help with supplies and notices. Just visit:

<http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c044caba622a31-2015>

The social events are waiting for you! Repeat one from past years or create something new. Recent suggestions were a strawberry dessert night, a poker run, or a corn-hole game night.

Once you have an event and a date, contact your board of directors for assistance with promotion, signs, using the Commons, supplies, etc.

MOSQUITO FACTS

Mosquitoes fly an estimated 1 to 1.5 miles per hour

Women are more attractive to mosquitoes than men because of the difference in hormones produced by the sexes.

Active, fidgety people are often more attractive to mosquitoes because they produce more of the mosquito attractants carbon dioxide and lactic acid.

Information is available at our website to help you control the mosquito population for your property.

STORM DRAIN MARKERS

When you notice a missing storm drain marker please contact webmaster@cchca.org or call 703-591-0696.

We have a supply of markers and will affix a new one forthwith. Thanks!

PHOTOGRAPHS!

AUDUBON PROGRAM ARRIVED THIS SPRING IN CCH!

CCH is lucky to be surrounded by remnants of woods and stream valley which support numerous animals and insects, including owls, hawks, box turtles, woodpeckers, swallowtails and so many more. For many CCHers the lovely parkland and open space was an important factor in deciding to move here. But the natural areas are struggling from the onslaught of invasive plants, heavy deer browse, pollutants and insecticide spraying. As part of CCHCA's efforts to care for our Common Area and the Accotink, Northern Virginia Audubon Society representatives met with residents on April 18 to explain how their Audubon at Home program can help us support the natural habitat along the Accotink at our Common Area and around our homes.

This is a fun program that entails observation and identification of insects and animals and taking steps to provide natural cover, food and shelter for them.

The program goal is to make sure our yards and common spaces are good habitats, and focuses on species which are experiencing severe population decline. If you see 10 of the 30 species the Audubon Society has identified as at risk then you can apply to be certified a wildlife sanctuary. We hope to successfully complete the program at the Common Area this summer and encourage homeowners to participate both at the Common Area and at your own home. For the Common Area, you will find a binder with information about the program and our observation log in the book box.

If you decide to certify your own yard, let CCHCA know! The more yards that are good habitats, the better we can support our local flora and fauna. More information about the program can also be found at www.audubonva.org.

ANNUAL MEETING / BOARD OF DIRECTOR VACANCIES

The CCHCA annual meeting was held on May 7, 2015 at Blenheim. Thank you to all our members who came out to listen to a wonderful presentation on our local history and help vote in your current Board of Directors.

There are two vacancies on the Board and this is a great time for you to consider how you can volunteer a small amount of your time to help shape the future of your neighborhood!

Contact any board member for more information.

BONUS BLOCK CAPTAIN

Marilyn Larsen (3406 Country Hill) Route 1A (9910, 9912, 9914, 9916, 9918, 9920 Broadview, 3424 Brookwood, 9913, 9915, 9917, 9919, 9921 Farr)

Marilyn and Larry moved to Country Club Hills in 1976. She taught English at Fairfax High School and later worked in the private sector; Larry was still in the Army at the time and retired in 1982 as a Lieutenant Colonel. They have been very active in the CCHCA and in City activities; each holding several different positions on the CCHCA Board, as well as on committees and boards in the City.

She served on the Public Information Advisory Board and was appointed to the City's first Commission for Women, as a founding member. Larry served on many boards and committees in the City and was also on the City Council for eight years. Both of them coached soccer for several years with FPYC. Their daughter, Janine, and son, Lee, attended John C. Wood Elementary School, which was located at the site of what is now our Police Department. Lee was in the last 6th Grade Class of John C. Wood. Both kids graduated from Fairfax High School; both are teachers with FCPS! Although Marilyn is retired, she still subs for the County almost daily and enjoys her time with all age groups.

She has been a Block Captain for 5 years.

WHAT'S GOING ON AT THE COMMONS?

In late March CCHCA applied for a $500 matching grant from the City of Fairfax Community Appearance Committee to support our effort to make the Commons area more attractive and more native plant oriented. In early April we received confirmation that our proposal was accepted. Thank you to David Stearman for creating such a professional proposal.

We had our first community work day at the Commons on April 18. Our work in the Commons this year begins a multi-year project toward sustainability and native plants. Besides weeding, edging, and mulching the whole area, we began a concentrated effort on the area in front of the sign, clearing out the plants that grow too tall and planting sedges and other native groundcovers and plants that will require less maintenance in the future and support local wildlife. We are excited to begin and know that we and our furry and feathered neighbors will benefit for years to come. Thank you to everyone who came out to help: Country Hills Garden Club members Polly Feuer (and her daughter), Teresina Christy, Nancy LeBow, and Betty Russell, along with CCH neighbors Judy and Doug Fraser, and Ariel Harwick. Thank you also to Joyce and Len Skoglund for taking time on another day, clearing out the area in front of the sign and planting low-growing native grasses.

During our work day on April 18, we also met with Terrence Liercke and Barbara Tuset from the Audubon Society to discuss our community's participating in the Audubon At Home wildlife sanctuary program. This fun program is open to homeowners, churches, schools, businesses, and homeowner associations.

Everyone can participate! We have a blue binder in our excellent book lending box by the pavilion. Inside the binder is a list of species and a log to make notes of observations.

For the Common Area to be certified as a wildlife habitat under the program, we need to observe at least 10 of 30 species that the Northern Virginia Audubon Society has identified as in need of additional habitat in Northern Virginia. More information about the program is in the binder and at audubonva.org. This is an education and awareness program and does not limit use of the Common Area in any way. If you have any questions, please contact Judy Fraser at president@cchca.org.

On May 3, we had a second work day at the Commons. Thanks to the matching grant from the city, combined with funding from CCHCA that was provided by the Country Hills Garden Club as well as individual donations, we were able to purchase several native trees and plants, including oak and hickory trees, serviceberry bushes, and redbuds. Community members planted those trees and plants, as well as a dozen native seedlings throughout the gardens. Thanks to Judy and Doug Fraser, the Salva family, Dia Pullen, Georgia Laxton, and Teresina Christy for your assistance!

To make sure that the newly planted seedlings and perennials at the Commons area get enough water this summer, we have created an online watering schedule (www.signupgenius.com/go/10c044caba623ab9-common). Basically, we've divided the summer into weeks and are asking that you sign up as a water steward for a week at a time (as many as you want).

Your responsibility is to make sure that the new plants have enough water during your week. If it rains, you are off the hook! If it is extra dry, you may need to make two trips during the week to water.

The other "water stewards" can show you where and how much to water. It shouldn't take more than an hour per watering, and no more than two times during the week (again, only if it doesn't rain). We have a rain barrel with watering cans at the pavilion for our water source. A neighbor has generously offered to keep the barrel full, so we will let them know when it is getting low. You can use the "my comment" box on the sign up to record the day(s) that you watered so the next person will know when the plants were last watered.

We will be having more Commons Area work days throughout the summer. We look forward to seeing you down at the Commons both for these volunteer days and for all the wonderful activities that take place there and make our neighborhood such a great place to live! Thanks to all the dedicated weeders, mulchers, planters, and waterers who are helping to make our CCH Commons beautiful!

Telephone Scam Alert

Please be aware of following telephone scams that have recently occurred in the Northern Virginia Region.

IRS/Tax Scam: Suspects call and claim to be an IRS agent and state that you owe taxes. The unknown caller may also claim that you will be arrested if you do not pay the tax debt. The called will usually request that you purchase a prepaid credit card or green dot card and give them the numbers on the card.

Green Dot Scam: Suspects call and allege that the victim has committed some type of criminal violation or they pretend to be a family member in need of monetary help. The suspect then requests that the victims immediately go to a nearby store and purchase a Green Dot money card and provide the numbers on the card to the suspect.

Jury Duty Scam: Suspects contact citizens and state that the victim has missed a scheduled day of jury duty. The suspect tells the victim that they will be arrested if they do not pay a fine in the form of a Green Dot money card or a wire transfer.

DEA Extortion Scam: Suspects contact citizens via telephone and accuse them of illegally purchasing drugs or medications over the telephone or internet. The suspect claims to be a DEA agent and tells the victim that they will be arrested for this offense unless they agree to pay a fine and wire the money.
