The following amendment will be brought to the floor at the next regular meeting for discussion and action:

Article III, Section 1: The officers of this Association shall consist of a president, vice-president, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary, and a treasurer.

SUBMITTING MEM

Our new hospitality committee will have coffee and snacks after the next meeting, so everyone come on out to meet all those neighbors you've never gotten around to meeting!

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Since the last meeting, a check of all letters written to the Veteran's Administration last June shows a substantial list of unsatisfied complaints.

We have spoken with a new man at the Veteran's Administration, who indicated there was still interest in satisfying all complaints. Therefore, we are making another survey to determine the exact number of unsatisfied complaints, so that we may arrange a meeting with a representative of the Veteran's Administration to present these facts.

Please indicate on the attached form any complaints allowed by the previous V. A. inspector, and still not corrected. Then list any major complaints, which either were not considered justifiable, or were unlisted at the time of the last letters.

Your section representative will call on you before November 18, 1956, to collect these forms, and to help with them if necessary. Please have these forms ready, so that we may compile the facts as quickly as possible.

ATTENTION!

ATTENTION!

ATTENTION!

The party loving folks in Country Club Hills have a big treat in store for New Year's Eve. Another HAPPY NEW YEAR'S PARTY is being planned and word is spreading fast that everyone wants to join in the fun and merrymaking, so we call all welcome in 1957 together.

PLACE: OLDCOACH INN (Rt. 50--directly across the road from Fairfax High)

TIME: 9 till 3

DRESS: If you have a formal, wear it. If not, look as pretty as possible.

The Old Coach Inn was selected mainly because it avoids driving around on highways this wild night.

The cost per person comes to $5.00 (which you must admit is pretty reasonable for New Year's Eve) and here's what you get:

Two rooms--one for dancing, eating, and drinking, the other for the bar and cloak room.

Tables, table cloths, glasses, ice, water, cakes, gingerale, 7-Up, potato chips, nuts, pretzels, soda.

Decorations, and favors (including noise makers).

Juk box--80 current recordings, free play. (We discussed hiring a three piece combo, but their fees are out of this world on New Year's Eve, and available talent is of dubious quality.)

Breakfast--from 1:30 to 2:30, served at your table and consisting of ham or bacon and scrambled eggs, toast and coffee.

We must limit the crowd to 150 persons (75 couples) in order that everyone will be comfortable and can circulate freely from the bar to the tables. Out of fairness to all, sale of tickets will be based on a first-come, first-serve basis. So--please don't be left out. Plan now----to buy----to get your tickets so that we may see you there. (Yes, friends are welcome.)

Contact your Section Representative immediately so that she may call you your tickets, or set them aside for you.

| Section III: | Del Stanbury | CR3-0346 |
| Section V: | Isabel Kennedy | CR3-3637 |

We plan to have a ball and a wonderful, wonderful time, so let's hope all you gorgeous guys and dolls will be there. In the meantime, happy baby-sitter hunting.
