A Virginia kitchen bake sale will be one of the featured attractions at the second annual flower and garden show, sponsored by the Country Hills Garden Club of Fairfax County, Va.

The sale and the show will be open to the public from 3 to 6 p. m., Sept. 12, at Layton Hall School, near Fairfax Circle on Route-237.

Barbara Sampson, Bird's of both horticulture and artistic arrangements divisions are open to amateurs only. And all exhibits must be registered by 11 a. m. on the day of the show.

Awards of merit will be given in the seven classes of the horticulture division and in the 10 classes under artistic arrangements. The perpetual sweepstakes award will be given to the Country Club Hills Garden Club member with the most blue ribbons in horticulture.

Mrs. J. V. Bledsoe of Fairfax is general chairman of the flower show committee. Mrs. E. M. Tierney Jr. is president of the Country Club Hills Garden Club, sponsors of the annual flower and garden show.
